

Chat Session for It's All About the Money: Corporate Fundraising for Children's Programming in Public Libraries

12:09:57 PM from Stanley Strauss to All Participants: PPT and Handouts for today's webinar are available at:

<http://infopeople.org/training/it's-all-about-money>

12:39:37 PM from Tessa Michaelson Schmidt

to All Participants: Do you ever have issues around conflict of interest?

12:39:41 PM from Angela Citizen

to All Participants: what are some good companies to ask?

12:39:47 PM from Tina Lucero-Sanchez

to All Participants: lol...my mouth watered when I saw the fries too!

12:40:53 PM from Janet Judson

to All Participants: from Janet Judson to All Participants:

12:41:12 PM from Sigrid Hudson

to All Participants: Our employee union sometimes donates to our programs.

12:41:24 PM from Janet Judson

to All Participants: Huntington Beach Public Library has been successful in approaching all of the local area businesses.

12:41:48 PM from Amy Lee

to All Participants: Some of our staff are opposed to giving out food coupons, esp. fast food, for kids-- we try to go around it by making the coupon as an option only. Did any of you have the same issue?

12:42:30 PM from Donna Crane

to All Participants: we send out letters to all the companies that are listed in our chamber of commerce. We have had a lot of success with that

12:43:00 PM from Janet Judson

to All Participants: Yes, we allow the children to select from a number of restaurants or choose a bookmark or a candy coupon from our in-library coffee cart

12:44:16 PM from Tessa Michaelson Schmidt

to All Participants: Thanks Cheryl!

12:44:17 PM from Angela Citizen

to All Participants: Thank you all for your answers!

12:44:36 PM from Janet Judson

to All Participants: How about competing events that are sponsored by the Library. What do panel members suggest we do to make sure we don't "go to the same well too often."

Chat Session for It's All About the Money: Corporate Fundraising for Children's Programming in Public Libraries

12:45:26 PM from Amy Lee

to All Participants: We are fortunate to have a Library Foundation to raise prizes/funds for many of our programs.

12:45:59 PM from Coleen wakai

to All Participants: I have to get to work....Thanks so much for a great presentation! Enjoy your day!

12:47:00 PM from Mathew Rose to All Participants: Thank you for the fantastic webinar!

12:49:06 PM from Tina Lucero-Sanchez

to All Participants: Great Webinar, thank you

12:51:55 PM from Amy Lee

to All Participants: Thank you!

12:51:55 PM from Heather Witherow

to All Panelists: We keep a spreadsheet where everyone submits who they've asked

12:52:14 PM from Angela Citizen

to All Participants: Thank you!

12:52:17 PM from Kimberly Nix

to All Panelists: Thank you