

Text chat transcript for “Telling Your Story: Five Secrets for Successful Career Growth and Advancement,” October 10, 2012

Eileen O'Shea: elevator speeches: http://www.quintcareers.com/writing_elevator_speeches.html

Sherill Lutz:How do I get to the slides?

Zoe:<http://infopeople.org/training/telling-your-story>

Zoe:Near end of page

Sherill Lutz:ok thanks a lot!

Wendy Wright:Use these pitches at conferences, or when meeting distant senior mgmt.

Spencer Davis:I would think they would also be a good way to start the answer to the standard interview question of "tell us about yourself"

Wendy Wright:Absolutely!

Elizabeth Greenfield:Doc log mgr sounds like a copy center.

felipe juarez:Don't forget Library resources for self development! DVD's on this subject!!!! :)

Eileen O'Shea:that linked in group: <http://www.linkedin.com/groups/Career-Sustainability-3949169?gid=3949169>

Padmashree G:Santa Clara

felipe juarez:Santa Clara County FG

felipe juarez::)

Zoe:If you're looking to advance in the same organization, how do you speak passionately about our job in an elevator pitch, without making it seem you're best at your current job?

Linda:I missed the first 3 webinars in this series. Possible to provide links to archived sessions please?

Infopeople Project:https://survey.qualtrics.com/SE/?SID=SV_6Gpq7uQrucjzF7n mary burch:Thank you!

Padmashree G:Santa Clara County Fair: Tully Road San Jose, CA 95111

Eileen O'Shea:Yes!

Infopeople Project:The link on slide doesn't work so use this one.

https://survey.qualtrics.com/SE/?SID=SV_6Gpq7uQrucjzF7n

Eileen O'Shea:They can all be found here: <http://infopeople.org/training/telling-your-story>