IV. “LIBRARY INSIDERS” DEFINITION AND WAYS TO BE INCLUSIVE

Thank you for inviting us in. – Eva, Library Insider

“LIBRARY INSIDERS”

DEFINITION & WAYS TO BE INCLUSIVE

- ✘ Someone who feels at ease navigating the library.
- ✘ An individual who approaches the desk with a question or comment.
- ✘ An individual who uses resources and/or attends programs that are available, as a library user.

Insiders

Dream Collage Activity
Library Insiders, Walnut Creek Library

CREATING AN “INSIDER” EXPERIENCE FOR EVERYONE

- ✘ For some individuals with intellectual disabilities, the library can be an intimidating environment.
- ✘ The goal of Library Insiders is to cultivate an “insider” experience for adults with intellectual disabilities.
- ✘ Specialized programs give library staff an opportunity to welcome someone who feels like an “outsider” into to an “inside” library experience.

HOW TO GET STARTED

- ✘ Do you have adults in community-based groups visiting your libraries on a daily basis?
- ✘ Introduce yourself to individuals already in your library.
- ✘ Call local town/city/county adult community-based organizations (for example, ARC)

TYPES OF PROGRAMS

- ✘ Programs that encourage adults with developmental disabilities to feel comfortable and confident using all resources in the public library.
 - + Behind the scenes library tour
 - + Scavenger hunts (handout)
 - + Library technology and computer tutorials
 - + Summer Reading (reading record handout)

TYPES OF PROGRAMS

- ✘ Programs that provide a variety of opportunities for lifelong learning.
- ✘ Exercise, Nutrition, Well-being
- ✘ Fire Safety
- ✘ Scrapbooking, Gaming, Picture Bingo
- ✘ Cooking, Measuring
- ✘ Local Environment (Ranger talks)
- ✘ Zine making (recipes, poetry, drawings, photos or other interests)
- ✘ Yoga

PARTNERS: AGENCIES & PRESENTERS

- ✘ Friends of the Library
- ✘ Library Foundation
- ✘ City Parks and Recreation Department
- ✘ Local Businesses
- ✘ Police and Fire Department
- ✘ Reading Therapy Dogs (ARF)
- ✘ Local Music Performers

FREQUENCY OF PROGRAMS AND SCHEDULING

- ✘ When working with local adult organizations it is helpful to determine a set schedule for programs.
- ✘ Most programs meet on a monthly or bi-weekly basis.
- ✘ Programs are publically promoted.

SUMMER READING RECORDS

Example of literacy activities listed in Adult Summer Reading Record (see handout)

- Visit the library!
- Ask a librarian a question.
- Listen to music or books.
- Read or spend time with a book or magazine.
- Watch a movie.
- Write or draw a picture about your summer.

EXAMPLE OF ACCESSIBLE SUMMER READING RECORD: LIBRARY INSIDERS

Follow the directions for each picture. Once you have completed all of the activities, bring this reading program to the Insiders Meeting in September for a special celebration!

HOW CAN YOU MAKE SUMMER READING MORE ACCESSIBLE?

- × 2012 Adult Summer Reading Record Instructions

Read a book and write a short review to enter in the Library's prize drawing. Ages 18 and older.

- × 2013 Adult Summer Reading Record Instructions

Read a book and write a short review to enter in the Library's prize drawing. Ages 18 and older. For other ways to participate, visit ccclib.org/summer. Ages 18 and older.

STAFF COOPERATION

× Communication

- + Explain the importance of including everyone.
- + Share program feedback.
- + Foster introductions and relationships with staff and Insiders.
- + Get everyone involved.

IMPACT

- ✘ Participants report that they use the library more, feel comfortable asking questions of library staff, and are now attending a variety of library programs.
- ✘ Library Insiders gain independent public library skills and are equipped to navigate most public library resources/services.
- ✘ Staff appreciate the kindness and positive interactions received from Library Insiders.

V. INCLUSIVE STORYTIMES

PARTNERS

A good place to start: Your Community!

PARTNERS

- × Schools

- × Special Day Classes

- × Observe classes

- × Host a storytime

- × Special Education Departments

- × Parenting Groups

- × Parent to Parent Networks

- × School affiliated parenting groups

PARTNERS

- ✘ Local Organizations Serving Children with Disabilities (211.org)
- ✘ Early Intervention Programs
(WeCareChildren.org, Milestonesforautism.net)
- ✘ Any organization that reaches out to families, with services for children with disabilities

WHAT IS INCLUSIVE STORYTIME?

A time to learn and grow for children of all abilities

- ✘ Inclusive storytimes are for all children, including children with disabilities.
- ✘ Inclusive storytime does not mean a storytime that is only for children with disabilities.

WHAT MAKES STORYTIME INCLUSIVE?

- ✘ Provide adaptations that enable all children, including those with disabilities, to participate.
- ✘ Modify books to make them easier to use and to comprehend.
- ✘ Add visuals, such as a picture schedule, along with “rules”/expectations.
- ✘ Slow down the pace.
- ✘ Provide fidget toys.

HOW CAN YOU MAKE STORYTIMES INCLUSIVE?

ADAPTATIONS

- ✘ Adapted, or modified books expand learning opportunities for all children, but particularly for children with vision, hearing and learning disabilities.
- ✘ For example:
 - + Laminate loose book pages
 - + Add page turners
 - + Create Velcro icons/images in order to clarify meaning

ADAPTED BOOK

INCLUSIVE STORYTIME KITS TRAVEL

INCLUSIVE STORYTIME FIDGET TOYS, PICTOGRAMS, ECHO-PHONE

STAFF COOPERATION AND TRAINING

- ✘ Biggest challenge – staff unfamiliar with learning differences and may fear failure.
 - + Provide information on most common youth disabilities in your community.
 - + Observe Special Day Class or Special Education class.
 - + Present storytime to Special Day Class, utilize teacher's support.
 - + Contact school district or literacy organization for workshop information.
