

Q&A Session for E-Government Questions: helping users navigate online government resources without practicing law!

Date: 2011-4-21

Starting time: 08:14

---

!Stanley Strauss(stanley@infopeople.org) - 12:11

Q: from Susan Mark to All Participants:

If they ask where something is specifically in the statute, is it legal advice to try to find the right statute?

Priority: N/A!

---

!Susan Mark(smark@wyo.gov) - 12:11

Q: legal advice to try to find the right statute?

Priority: N/A!

---

!Susan Mark(smark@wyo.gov) - 12:11

Q: If they ask where something is specifically in the statute, is it legal advice to try to find the right statute?

Priority: N/A!

---

!Stanley Strauss(stanley@infopeople.org) - 12:38

Q: from Mark Griffin to All Attendees:

What about librarians being notaries?

Priority: N/A!

---

!Stanley Strauss(stanley@infopeople.org) - 12:39

Q: from Laurie Whitcomb to All Attendees:

Any advice for when the patron is visually impaired e.g. macular degeneration and can't see to type or click submit?

Priority: N/A!

---

!Maribeth Devich(mdevich@brev.org) - 12:52

Q: Thank you very much. Very informative

Priority: N/A!

---

!Maribeth Devich(mdevich@brev.org) - 12:54

Q: How can I get the printout of the session? Link not working. Also, where's the survey? Thank you.

Priority: N/A!

---

!Maribeth Devich(mdevich@brev.org) - 12:59

Q: Got the printouts, but unable to find the survey.

Priority: N/A!

!Infopeople Project!! - 13:02

A: You will be able to get transcript, other docs on our website later this afternoon.

<http://infopeople.org/training/e-government-questions-helping-users-navigate-online-government-resources-without-practicin!>